

LET'S LEARN ABOUT FRANCE

The Eiffel Tower is a wrought-iron lattice tower on the Champ de Mars in Paris, France.

Learn about France as your family celebrates diversity and global culture with this grab-and-go community meal. Have an immersive experience so you can feel what's like to be a family from France. Scan here to learn how to pronounce tonight's meal.

The Le Moine family in the living room of their apartment in the Paris suburb of Montreuil, with a week's worth of food, Michel Le Moine and Eve Le Moine, stand behind their daughters, Dephine (standing), and Laetitia (holding spaghetti and Coppelius the cat). From "Hungry Planet: What the World Eats" by Peter Menzel.

France is located in Western Europe, bordering the Bay of Biscay and English Channel, between Belgium and Spain, southeast of the UK; bordering the Mediterranean Sea, between Italy and Spain.

WHAT IS THEIR CULTURE LIKE?

French families can have a variety of interests, such as; going to the theater, dancing, bicycling, and many other outdoor sports. French families tend to value sophistication and beauty, such as art.

HOW DO FAMILIES HAVE FUN?
WHAT ARE FRENCH KIDS LIKE?
HOW DOES FRENCH FOOD TASTE?
HOW CAN WE FIND OUT MORE?

LET'S MAKE SOME FRENCH FOOD!

Croque-monsieur is a traditional French sandwich made with bread, ham, and cheese. Visit this website to learn how to make the classic croque-monsieur along with other varieties using different ingredients. Bon appétit!

Rosalie Durand, 10, Nice, France, photographed August 18, 2017. Gregg Segal, "Daily Bread: What Children Eat Around the World."

WHAT KIND OF INGREDIENTS?

In France, people eat foods like salad, baguettes, fish, cheese, soup, duck, frog legs, quiche (egg pie) and escargot (snails)!

NURSERY RHYMES

"Frère Jacques" is a well-known round from France. In English it is the song "Are You Sleeping?"

BOOKS CONNECTED TO FRANCE

Belinda in Paris by Amy Young.
Available through Traverse Area District Library.

HISTORY OF BALLET!

While ballet originated in Italy, we often associate this elegant art form with France. Catherine de Medici introduced it to the French court after her marriage to King Henry II.

GRAB YOUR PASSPORT!

Bring your passport to every meal to earn prizes for participating.

United Way of Northwest Michigan

