

Rainy Day Fun

Created By PAM
sarak@preventionnetwork.org preventionnetwork.org/pam

1. Movie Marathon: Set up a cozy movie area with blankets and pillows. Pick a theme or series of movies and enjoy a movie marathon together. Don't forget the popcorn!
2. Indoor Treasure Hunt: Create a treasure hunt with clues and hidden treasures around the house. It can be a fun and interactive activity that keeps everyone engaged.
3. Indoor Camping: Set up a makeshift campsite in your living room. Build a fort using blankets, chairs, and pillows. Tell stories, play board games, and enjoy some camping-themed snacks.
4. Arts and Crafts: Engage in arts and crafts activities like painting, drawing, or making DIY projects. Create a family art gallery or collaborate on a large group project.
5. Baking or Cooking: Choose a recipe and involve the whole family in the baking or cooking process. It's a great opportunity to teach kids new skills in the kitchen and enjoy delicious treats together.
6. Board Game Bonanza: Gather a selection of board games or card games and spend the day playing and competing as a family. Make it a tournament and award prizes to the winners.
7. Indoor Scavenger Hunt: Create a scavenger hunt with a list of items or clues to find around the house. It adds excitement and adventure to the rainy day.
8. Science Experiments: Conduct simple and safe science experiments at home. There are many online resources with easy experiments that will engage and educate the whole family.
9. Family Storytelling: Sit together and take turns creating a story. Each person adds a sentence or a paragraph to continue the story. Let creativity flow and see where the story leads.
10. Puzzle Time: Work on jigsaw puzzles as a family. Choose a challenging puzzle that requires teamwork and problem-solving skills. It can be a great way to relax and bond.

Remember, rainy days can provide an opportunity for quality family time and create cherished memories. Embrace the indoor activities and make the most of the cozy atmosphere.

05/2023

